Dear Charles:-

I went into action immediately after writing to you two days ago and it looks as though my problem may already be resolved. I will know definately by next week and will then advise you. Yesterday I wored for my material as I shall need it immediately.

When your letter came I was all packed and ready to go over to the Tribal Council meeting. I couldnt go under the circumstances. The enclosed is what I missed. Hope you can see it. Dont ever under estimate the Navaho. They are on the up and up so fast that it is amazing.

Reading between lines, I see that the Rio Grande must still be on your red side if ledger. For this I am sorry, but hope that it may yet pay its way out. And by the way, the Santa Fe Book & Stationery Co has repeatedly complained of the way books are packed as jackets arrived badly rubbed and damaged. Thier sale, though of course relatively very small has certainly increased over last year.

You will hear from me just as soon as a new contract is signed.

Sincerely yours,
