Dear Charles:-

The November statement has come and I had expected with it a bill for LA FRANCE DE PROFILE. But no bill. Please let me know what I owe you for this.

I had hoped that some, at least, of the sale books would appear on this statement, but I take it not until the spring. What do I get in the way of royalty on these sale copies?

From a number of sources I am hearing that people miss pictures in Paul Horgen's Great River. While this book is so new and in the public eye, what could be done to bring mine in as a companion piece? And a number of reviews that I have seen have used other pictures for illustration. This with the right byline, if some of mine could be used, would give us a good tie in.

I shall be coming east in the spring with the finished Navaho. Still haven't heard from Walter Freese.

With best wishes to you both,
Sincerely yours
