Dear Charles:-

It is now nearly a year since I had correspondence with you and the Merideth Press about a new edition of RIO GRANDE. A letter from Mr. Barless told me that the plates of the book could not be found. Is this still the case, and are any plans whatsoever being made for a new edition? I am really disturbed over the drag on this. It may be that you do not consider the local demand on the book worth a reprint. If this is the case, I should like to know just where we do stand. Would you be so kind as to send me a complete statement of our transactions? I have never known just how many copies were in the second edition.

It seems to me that it is time to clarify the terms of our agreement.

No word has come from Merideth since Mr. Barless' letter last April, and I do want to know just where and how we stand.

With kind regards to Charles and the best of wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,
