Dear Miss Gilpin:

The New Mexico SCHOOL REVIEW is inaugurating a book section in the January, 1950 issue. We plan to review, as well as educational material, books of general interest to our teacher subscribers.

We are using your new book "The Rio Grande" as our lead review and hope that perhaps you will have a picture from the book which we may use as the January cover picture.

Our subscribers number some 6000 at present - 100% enrollment of the Association's Active membership, plus advertisers, agencies and others in the Association associate membership. They would certainly appreciate a cover of an artistic nature (for a change), and we think it would be a particularly effective way to introduce the new book department.

Unfortunately we have an immediate deadline to meet...the 12th of December. If you do have something we can use I would appreciate your calling at your earliest possible convenience. The Association number is 220.

Under separate cover I am sending a copy of the November issue of the REVIEW showing the space allotted for the cover picture.

Thanking you in advance, I am

Cordially yours

Minnie Gilliland
