Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am delighted to have the notice of the publication of your book, "Rio Grande" and I enclose my check for $6. I will be glad if you will mail me a copy as soon as they are available.

Mrs. Williamson and I often think of you and your friend Miss Robey, and hope that some time or other you will be coming through Chicago and will drop in to see us.

I found the card was a little difficult to write on with pen and ink and I had to finish out the work on it with pencil.

Kindest regards to yourself and Miss Robey,

I am

Yours truly,
