

WRIGHTS' RANCH

A Mountain Cattle Ranch and Resort

CREEDE, COLORADO

November 21, 1949

Dear Miss Gilpin:

Will you please send me a copy of your book: The Rio Grande, River of Destiny? Since this is for my brother-in-law I would like you to autograph this for him and I am sure he would like it. He is the man who was feeding cattle out in the meadow in all that deep snow two years ago at our ranch which is the first place to take water from the River for irrigation as mentioned in your book. His name is W. Wallace Wright and so you can ascribe it. I am enclosing check for $6.00 plus 25¢ for postage, exchange on check etc. making the check $6.25.

My neighbor, Mrs. Eugenia Wetherill has a copy of your book and after looking it over we are all quite enthusiastic in praise. You have done extraordinarily well we think. I appreciate what a task it must have been to choose what to put in and what to leave out but I think you did a perfect job.

Sincerely,

Maxel Wright
(Mrs. Raymond Wright)
