

Bridges over Rio Grande along International Boundary Line

Location

|    |                             |   |
|----|-----------------------------|---|
| ①  | Brownsville-Matamoros       | Gateway Bridge  |
| ①  | Brownsville-Matamoros       | Railroad Bridge. The only bridge on the river having a swinging center span, which, however, has never been used. |
|    | Mercedes-Rio Rico           | A highway bridge at this point was destroyed by flood in 1941. A ferry has been operated since.                   |
| 2  | Hidalgo-Reynosa             | Highway Bridge  |
| 3  | Roma-San Pedro de Mier      | Highway Bridge  |
| 4  | Zapata-Guerrero             | Highway Bridge  |
| 5  | Laredo-Nuevo Laredo         | Highway Bridge  |
| ②  | Laredo-Nuevo Laredo         | Railroad Bridge   |
| 6  | ③ Eagle Pass-Piedras Negras | Railroad Bridge   |
|    | Eagle Pass-Piedras Negras   | Highway Bridge  |
| 7  | Del Rio-Villa Acuña         | Highway Bridge  |
| 8  | Presidio-Ojinaga            | Railroad Bridge   |
|    | Presidio-Ojinaga            | Highway Bridge  |
| 9  | Ft. Hancock-El Porvenir     | Highway Bridge  |
| 10 | Tornillo-Guadalupe          | Highway Bridge  |
| 11 | Ysleta-Zaragoza             | Highway Bridge  |
|    | El Paso-Juarez              | Stanton Street Bridge   |
| 12 | ④ El Paso-Juarez            | Mexican Central Railroad Bridge   |
|    | ⑤ El Paso-Juarez            | Mexican and Northwestern Railroad Bridge  |
|    | El Paso-Juarez              | Santa Fe Street Bridge  |