Dear Miss Gilpin:

I have been expecting to hear from you in regard to the exhibition we discussed, "Following the Rio Grande". As our schedule now stands the only date for a large gallery would be September 18 - October 2. Even so, we are in such a state of upheaval due to building at the back and finishing the American Wing that we can't be sure we will be in a condition for a great deal of work. I would appreciate, if the exhibition is available, your letting me know how much running space it requires and how many mounts and what sizes they are.

I have seen your sister-in-law several times and she said she had not heard from you.

With the best of wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Eleanor Underdonk
Curator of Art
