Dear Miss Gilpin:

Many thanks for your note of January 22 with it's several items of interest. I am terribly disappointed that Polly and I won't be able to get there in February. It seems the beginning of March or April is the earliest. I did so much hope to be able to get down to Yucatan.

I was under the impression that the Southwestern Monuments Association, at least several of it's custodians, did handle the PUEBLOS, and that we did a fair amount of business with them. I am turning over a copy of this letter to Miss Dwyer to check.

We have written to Mr. Hall, and return herewith his letter. Many thanks. The six copies are also being sent to you under separate cover.

You mention the public school system. We have found that we are able to get supplementary readers in some of the public schools where we are able to discover the names of the people in charge. Perhaps you could help us for this in the Southwest. We would be glad to follow up from there.

I had meant to write previously concerning the postcard situation, but can't remember at this time whether I did so. In any event, I have checked very carefully and find that, unfortunately, it would be much too difficult and too expensive a distribution and manufacturing problem at this time to do it, and we, therefore, have to reluctantly forget about it for the present. Best wishes on your trip.

Cordially yours,

HASTINGS HOUSE, PUBLISHERS, INC.

P. S. Our shipping department informed that they sent you only four copies of the PUEBLOS as we are out of stock. As soon as the new binding is ready we will ship the balance.
