Dear Miss Gilpin:

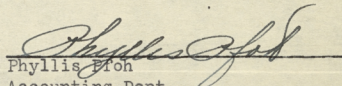

Inasmuch as the fiscal year of the corporation now ends January 31st, we should like upon the advice of our accountants, to change the dates of your royalty statements from February 10th and August 10th to March 10th and September 10th, to cover the six months periods ending January 31st and July 31st.

The date of royalty payment on your book will, however remain the same.

We trust that this arrangement will not inconvenience you.

Very truly yours,

HASTINGS HOUSE, PUBLISHERS, INC.
