Dear Miss Gilpin:

Just a note to acknowledge your letter of January 27, and the receipt of the suggestions for the jacket. Mr. Spencer says that these seem to be quite alright, and we are, therefore, sending a check for $45.00 to Mr. Sluis, in accordance with your suggestion.

Year-end business and our spring books have kept us from really getting into the Yucatan book, but we hope to do so very shortly. We note what you say about the best season for the book, and will do our utmost, although production difficulties, particularly in this process, are worse than they have ever been. We'll keep you informed.

Cordially yours,

HASTINGS HOUSE
