Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am sorry to have taken this long to have answered your inquiry but I had no definite news for you concerning proof of TEMPLES IN YUCATAN. We are planning for a publication date late in October but we have nothing from the printers as yet.

I am enclosing a tentative blurb for the front flap. We cannot add much more to the actual wordage but will you please let me have your suggestions or changes. I am also enclosing some quotations from the reviews of THE PUEBLOS to be used on the inside back flap. I suspect we will not be able to use all of them. Will you check the ones you prefer and let me have any others that you would prefer which may not be in our files.

In two entries in the bibliography we did not have the initials or the first names of the authors. Will you let me have them if they are available?

As soon as I have more definite news I will write you. In the meantime, I hope you are having a pleasant summer. It's hot and sticky here and everybody sits around and groans.

Sincerely,

HASTINGS HOUSE
