Dear Miss Gilpin:

Now that we have gotten the pasted up dummy out to you, I am writing this note to answer some of your queries of your letter of October 9.

We are writing to the three bookstores and Mr. Barachano, and will probably send them a complimentary copy of the PUEBLO book to give them an idea of what they might expect in the YUCATAN book.

I don't know anything about the Bandelier National Monument. It doesn't seem as if 40,000 visitors would be sufficient to make worthwhile a book which would cost over a $1.00. Ernie Knee also is working on a book on Taos. I don't know whether Bandelier Monument will be included, but in any event I would certainly like to hear more about your suggested project.

We cannot give you any schedule on TEMPLES OF YUCATAN until the final sheets are in the hands of the binders. This has been their practice ever since the beginning of the war. All the other difficulties, however, have been overcome.

I hope we can get the pasted up dummy back very soon.

Cordially yours,

HASTINGS HOUSE
