Dear Miss Gilpin:

On Tuesday we sent you the complete folded sheets of 72 pages. Several days before we sent you a sheet of the first plate only. I hope that all of these arrive in time to help you with your presentation.

I don't know whether I wrote you again as I had promised, so, at the risk of repeating myself, I want to mention that the picture I had taken a special fancy to is that shown on page 33, Vista Between the East Annex and Iglesias.

The Farnsworth Bookshop in Colorado Springs asked for some circulars and said that they wanted to give an autographing tea for you. I believe Mr. Durrell has written that we will send the circulars and suggesting that they get in touch with you direct. We think that this might be an excellent idea.

I hope you are as pleased with the printed sheets as we are. We think this will make a lovely book, although this hand-folding you have received doesn't do the sheets the full justice as the bound books will.

Best wishes.

Cordially yours,

HASTINGS HOUSE
