Dear Miss Gilpin:

Your advance author's copies of the YUCATAN book have gone forward to you yesterday, and review copies are going out to the various magazines and newspapers.

We are tremendously pleased with the printing, and like the cover. I personally am a bit disappointed with Paul McPharlin's treatment of the folios, but he gave some very good reasons for it, and is one of the country's top designers, so perhaps it's just a personal feeling of my own.

Carl Smalley wrote that James Thelkald of the New Mexico Book Store in Albuquerque said that he would be very much pleased to have you drop in to see him when you're in Albuquerque next.

Congratulations on another magnificent book! We are working on its publicity from a number of interesting angles, but would, of course, always appreciate any that you might be able to suggest. I wish I could be at the autographing party in Colorado Springs, but I'm afraid it's a bit too far away at this time. Best wishes, and again, congratulations.

Cordially yours,

HASTINGS HOUSE
