Dear Laura:

Just a note to tell you that your introduction to Barbachano seems to be bearing fruit. He reports that he is doing fairly well with the fifty copies, and has written to inquire what our price would be for 150 copies which he might like to give away at Christmas time to special friends including travel agents. Special outlets like his are the backbone of our travel book business.

I saw Walter Goodwin on the train the other night. His description of his Mexican trip was most amusing, and I was glad to hear that he found you in the best of health and spirits.

Best wishes.

Cordially yours,

HASTINGS HOUSE
