Dear Walter:-

Thank you very much for your letter of Tuesday. I am glad that you like the way the book is coming and I hope that it is going to "figure out". I have so much of everything tied up in this now that I simply must pull it to a successful conclusion.

Last Friday (a week ago) I made the last flight to get the other sacred mountains. It was a thrilling experience for I really covered the entire reservation. In a small light plane when one doesnt have to fly high there is so much to see. While in the air I suddenly saw how to do the history section for the book. Looking down on it from the air. I tried it out in the talk I gave with my color slides last Wednesday night. It makes history come alive, somehow, and it seemed to go over. I enclose the clippings of this affair.

I am surprised to hear that YLLA'S book
