Erica's death on September twenty-third is a great loss to us all, but it has left us with strength and determination to continue the Albert Schweitzer Friendship House. With your contributions and help we can all work together to achieve this goal and continue the work to which she devoted her life. Bless you.