My very dearest Nell,

I wanted to send this small contribution in regard to the solicitation I received from the Friendship House. I know how much this means to you.

There is so much I would like to tell you and write to you personally, but you know and understand everything that writing now to me is difficult from the standpoint of handwriting and concentration. Your letters have meant more to me than I can ever express and, of course, the love that I feel that is between us is one of the strengthening elements in my world.

I hope you are enjoying the beauty of the snow and your beautiful birds. I do not know when I will be back to the country as I am still having either 2 or 3 important chemo-therapy injections each week. But possibly soon this will straighten itself out, and I will be able to see you. Meanwhile know that I think of you constantly and love you deeply and always.

Ever devotedly,

Alice
