Some of the Clothiers
"Mertensia + blue lupins
+ a little lawn weasses & pink fireweed.
Stopped at an old camp & talked with - Murphy. who hunted at the Two Beans in 1893 when I boarded it.
Bullin + who remembered the boy killed by Grande near dome. The Park itself a lovely drive into a most gorgeous sunset skenery then a very cold dashing stream
Denny, Burr, Antoinette
& myself. Today
& tomorrow we see
Yellowstone + tomorrow night I climb
around from Cody

Monday. 6th am

ONE THOUSAND AND FORTY
PARK AVENUE

Not to bad a camp site - a wood shack with a big double bed only half filled + a bit lonely, but with the bright sun shining in. + the clear ringing air like wine all around. another words "Camp at Mammoth Springs" Yellowstone Park.
Along headline + a long journey ahead. Started at 8:30 yesterday out to the desert, 110 miles to go to-day the new gateway via Red Lodge mnt. + a new road up a canon then zig zag up its side to a divide at 11000 ft.
then snow piles + above timber line which is about 10,000 ft. Such blue flowers the

for HOME which is nowhere And for one day Blowing Rock via Asheville. Sam afraid on arrival at Chi. I shall be tempted to board at the AIR for it seems slow.

My last day was perfect & rode of 3 hours on a log road Evening finding alone with a "party" in the Evening in the Rough neck. All goin ice Dorothy Margerite heard waitress
"mrs neuree" from Lincoln cheesemaker Ruth Edna the bedroom girl from N Dak Mildred the cook Carp the clerk boy Edna bro. Geo. Draper the wrangler, Columbia Jake Dana asst wrangler Groton Seth Low girl boy whose Mother is marrying Draper's father all mingle in perfect democracy. Enough dear I will start mail ch Cody. Perhaps ch Billings. + a Chi Post Dem Co ch Chicago. Our trip N-Detroits with you. Shut joy with Cole. I wish our Head John R at B.R. & your starting from