En route Billings
9:30 P.M.

Well Dear
I shall wire you from Billings for Luck.

A perfect the tearful get away. Three wonderful days motoring. & just seeing.
This morning we left canon lodge "I shot" beaver, the canon & looked at mud grypers etc. & finally hit the edge of Yellowstone lake at noon. I saw our dash meal must be a picnic so we got a watermelon some bread & cheese & a bottle of milk & some plums & Dewey said he knew a place to stop. as we headed for Cody. We found the loveliest little lake on the road near the divide 800 ft. & while the others got lunch I put my tackle together & very nothing but in a crated in nearly to see trout. A perfect day sun shining light breeze. In 1/2 of an hour I had landed 4 good fish - three of them on the shore to the the water was good. & we motored about 50 miles to Cody. Shipped had a drink & the fish for dinner while I took a read bath changed & got sleep hair free from dust. The train left at 7:40 & they waited to see me off before motor a 3 hr drive of 50 miles to the ranch.

Antoinette sent you loads of love & has given me a little for you.

Now three days has been perfect no friction all well & divine weather clear & cool in the Park.
She has felt it has been a perfect time in every way and I am sure feels I am a Rock behind her & she will go forward & make her own decisions in calm peace but knowing she is backed.

The girl has really not had love & real companionship for years she is absolutely happy & away from Knox. & I know has more friction than joy with time.

Could dearest the time is growing shorter I have waked early & thought of you & how soon we would be together. God bless you & keep me to give you all you should have.
My arms seem empty.

John
