Dearest Anne

It was good to hear your voice but I was so sorry you have had such a hard time. I am looking for your call any moment and have with you in spirit. waiting is so hard. I called Nettie and Wini before I went out.

By the time this gets to you all will be O.K.

I went over to Mrs. Stafford on 72nd St. where there was a gathering to speed 15 French people going back tomorrow on the America to put on the Forgotten Factor in French for the French.

Last Summer they had a French "marchande" at Le Touquet on the Channel + some of those who came were brought over here to form a Forgotten Factor to play in France for the French.

They had beautiful faces. One a young clothing mfr from Lille talked with such simplicity, dignity + yet humor. Mme. Laure who is the head of 3 million socialist women was starting to talk as well. a wonderful woman. I feel these people are fighting our battles in the best way and that somehow they will penetrate Russia & do more.

P.S. Hugh + Daphne have set the 1st of May. John says they are no good so they shined start + get it over.

than all our planes + bombs.

I have brought home the book "I am not alone" letters from the infantryman John J. Hogan killed at Okinawa. You remember one was shown in "The Long Road"

I still think MTR A has more for us than anything I know + that if we could both get that feeling of reliance on God our troubles would fade or they would weigh no more than a feather.

I am going to try harder than ever + believe I can succeed but I have yet to take + keep at all first steps.

All our troubles outside of yr cystitis are nearly imaginary.

All this sounds dearest as if I have forgotten a dear child going thru life's hardest but most beautiful trials + her dear mother at home waiting - waiting waiting. God bless you dear heart I am tempted to call again but won't

Good night. J.

This is a funny extra special I found very 1st half unmailed. Rayott came in. They had seen at Translux a movie of the examination of Dr Graham (Gul Dacan) Truman's physician. They said he squirmed so in the witness chair that all the spectators in the movie itself were laughing at him what a pity. Rod were yarning + she told me that at the time of her mother's 1st illness K at her request had gone to a psychic she had used who wrote out the whole course of her life for 2 1/2 yrs to her death. She had not told her mother or me of it.

I have never had any ambition to go to a psychic for while if I knew the future I might act differently probably I should assume it + act so anyway but get all I can from the present.

There is the cast of the Forgotten Factor playing it in French. at the Moulin tomorrow night + Han T asked us to come. When I read the new Age there seems something in it When I think of the show itself as a medium to change energy people I wonder. He said they have a budget of $900,000. + how do they get the money? Somebody must think it a good thing.

I am sorry I used a sheet with some casual budget figures on. They are a wild guess assuming $200 div on common.

Kay has been working hard today + Taylor accepted the fact he can't go first so they will work between New York. The New York office Cornwall

We might go out + occupy the cottage for a couple of weeks using their car as well. Somehow a desert or West Indian Island looks good but not Hollywood. again I feel like an ass but do miss you a lot + want to see you, keep your butt busy you safe home
