My Dear Mrs. Donr,

I have just returned from a business trip to learn of Betty's death. I hasten to offer to you my sincere sympathy. Please be assured that there are lots of us who want to help relieve you of part of your grief. Although distance separates us, please feel as though we were by your side. It is difficult to find words of comfort, but our hearts are full of feeling and of the desire to comfort you and your family.

I feel a gaping hole has been created in my life because of my long and very happy associations with Betty. I would like to sit quietly with you holding hands and silently reflecting on the many happy memories we have of Betty.

Bill Faxon.
