Dear Grandmother Nell,

I'm enclosing a couple of pictures that I thought you might enjoy. Since Dad retired at the beginning of the year, he and Mom have been doing quite a bit of traveling. They've just bought the car + trailer pictured and are having a great time with them. 3 ~~4~~ weeks ago they went to Vancouver for the World's Fair and have now reached Prince Edward Island. They called me about an hour ago and said it was cool but beautiful.

I hope that you are well and that the Conn. Fall is pleasant. S.F. has been rather cooler than usual the past few months but it's getting back to normal now. I'm selling more group health insurance plans and am also doing some consulting on various projects at Fireman's Fund Ins. It's just a short walk from my apt. so it's very convenient. The hours are flexible enough to allow me to maintain my own business + the extra money is always useful. I'll write again. Love Tom
