Livermore, California

Built in the early 1880's on the corner of 4th and K Streets . . . this 'Carpenter' Victorian house . . . its windows handmade on the job-site from wood hauled by wagon from San Francisco . . . now overlooks the vineyards on Tesla Road.

Dear Grandmother Nell,

Isn't this a pretty house?

I spent a nice, sunny week-end in Livermore with Mom + Dad.

Talked with Nell on the phone. She has moved to Havre, Montana to finish school. She's very well.
