

Well darling: It is Christmas morning in Mexico and my heart is in Washington giving thanks for my blessings. If my real sister was taken away I leave you.

And all you have shared with me through most of my life. So my love flies to you and all those near you who love and treasure you as -

Your grateful

Lillian

1973