beautiful, like Europe so he doesn't want to go out of it which isn't good.

We have a chance to rent the little house we've formerly been in in the South of France three different winters for a couple of months.
This would be in January - I don't

Well darling -
How can you understand that we haven't been there to see you? - I can't. Newfane has been our only trip, and that took us long to get over.
Kurt is not well
physically + is not able to adjust until now to this. He's made this house really

know if we shall go -
if it's better to go back to Europe or stay here ——— which is the most uprooting.
One thing at a time.
Christmas is now ahead
and we must finish our bedroom where a wall has been torn down & they are still redecorating.
Quite enough of us — it has been & is always wonderful to hear your voice at least dear Nell — last time it sounded strong. That made us glad.
We love you well; and only wish you WELL, in every way — Good Night.
