Dear Nell,

A hasty note to tell you I have made it this far into the frozen North! My foot is behaving very nicely. I had hoped to see you this weekend but must go this morning by private plane to Western NY State. So, I will TRY to come to see you next Friday & Saturday. I must be in Vermont by Sunday Evening

From New Rochelle, N.Y. (15th) I must immediately to Olean, N.Y. (16th) and then I have tentatively scheduled air flights to Hartford and will drive a rental car to Washington, getting in late Friday.

As the time approaches, I will call to verify or correct these arrangements.

You cannot imagine how I am praying for decent weather until I get there; how much I look forward to these hours with you and Chris.

Best love,

Joe
