Dear Nell,

I am sending you some marks of affection from Gregory and Father George. When Gregory learned that we were sending you one of Father George's prints, he brought one of his own in, signed to you. So I am sending both of them.

I have also written Sr. Marie Pascale to send The Bare Feet on to Kolbsheim so it will be there when I arrive. I will make sure that Jacques gets a chance to view it leisurely, as he will want to.

All for the moment. I am snowed-under and done in -- too many interruptions while I try to work. It has been like a public meeting house here all week, which would be great if only it left the time to get the work done.

Our great love to you. Piedy and I were so pleased you liked the photo of Mandy.

We think of you constantly and pray for you constantly,

John
