Dearest Nell,

In great haste. The Bach album will come to you addressed to me in care of you, so just open it when it comes. It is yours but in order to get my discount I had to put my name on it.

I have frantically been making test prints of the pix I took there. Some marvelous ones, very beautiful ones of you and Frank and Bennie and Erica. I will not have time to finish them out, but am going to send them along now anyway, and we can make good prints later... at least you can see what we have. I am thrilled with them. Some are nearly finished, but need simply hypo and a new drying to make them permanent, and since I have to dash out again, I will not be able to do that.

Am also sending you along a magazine that contains Bob Bonazzi's poem about seeing one of your pictures - the one of the kitchen that you gave me and that hangs on the wall of our living-music room.

Great love to you and Chris from all of us here,
