Beloved Nell,

A word in haste, alas, to tell you how wonderful it was to hear your voice on the telephone yesterday, and also how sick we are to learn of the problems Erica is undergoing. We offered our Mass last evening for her intentions, and I have asked the Trappists, at Gethsemani, to pray for her.

I run to Boston tomorrow to check the book layout, return here Wednesday evening, and will have the surgery, I suppose, on Friday. Nothing to worry about.

Best love,

John
