

Mandy in her first Maxi

April 7, 1971

Beloved Nell,

How marvelous to talk with you last evening. Here is the photo of the dress we discussed on our Easter tape.

Johnny continues slowly with his improvement physically, and he grows rapidly otherwise. This has matured him and he is thinking a lot and discussing a lot of things with us. He begins to remind me of Chris in his general attitude, so you can imagine how grateful and happy we are!

In great haste - must get into the work early this morning.

Happy Easter, and best love to you and Chris,

John
