Dear Don -

You are right. Joan & I did share in ways that few people have done. And you shared with us. And we shall always have a record — though partial — of that shared life, in your pictures. I have been looking through them & each time they give me strength, love, & hope.

You say you have no words, but the words spill out anyway. They are full of love & they are a help.

All is well here. Moonie has come (Joan's childhood nurse). She loves the children & they her. She is a gift of God. We are at peace.

As ever,

Ann
