

Dear Mrs. Dar or Nell or what you like to be called by your friends,

Cuz and I thought your friends and family called you, Darn, which gave us both the happiest and warmest memories of a great book, ISLANDIA by Rustin Tappan Wright.
Islandia is a beautiful country inhabited by a noble people with a great past. Fascinating present and perhaps one's ^{hoped for} future.
In fact the whole evening might well have been spent in that far off land; in a serene house alight with candles. Your white dress. easy gracious people, good talk and above all a very wonderful quiet cheer.

It was the loveliest New Year's Eve and I have spent thank you for sharing the evening with us. And if you've not read ISLANDIA please let us give it to you.

We would like you and Chris to come for dinner the last of January or 1st of Feb. we want you to meet our young and they you. Our seven year old Pansies herself quite a budding photographer, and we like them all.
Our best wishes and thanks,

Joan
