and all of the ice is now covered with snow & very beautiful - but not very good driving.

John had to go to Church early today - the Bishop is dedicating the Church to something & formally installing Dr. Suter - & John has to take part in the ceremony.

K. B. P. is trying to talk Austin into going to Brazoria - No results so far. Cortisone hasn't helped him at all - & he now doesn't even go out at all - Poor thing!

Will keep you posted - Best our very best love to you all x

Sunday.

Mum Dearest -

Just a little letter to tell you the latest news & that we're thinking of you all. We've just had to have a little chat with Mar - & she gave notice - So - I'm on the look out once more. Don't worry however - as Mrs Kimball is free - & tho' she's more expensive & doesn't live in - she is infinitely better, tho

Mar has been the past few weeks - Its the same old thing - but I just couldn't put up with it.

Joyce is also unemployed & living in her home & feeling poor & a little lonely - so if I can't get someone permenant right away - She could very easily Baby set - & play with the Kids - as it is She comes down to play with them anyway & they love it.

John is glad - He always had to make a change - but he was fed up - So all will work out well - She gave us 2 weeks - & I just hope she doesn't change her mind - as we just don't want to have her good for a few days or weeks & then off on another binge - & you never know when -

We've had a snow storm since I last wrote
