Dearest Nell, What a beautiful afternoon it was this past Sunday! I loved being with you and your friends on my birthday, and when I think that it followed Helen's discovery of the first edition of Mother and Child, and her making a birthday present of it, I am impressed, astonished, and appreciative again for all the ways that our life paths happily intersect. We would love to see you soon to talk with you and to share some of the details of our adventures in Italy. 🎵 In the meantime we join in sending you thanks for the wonderful party, and great love — from your devoted friends, Steve and Helen
