

Wednesday -

Dear, dear Nell -

How we loved your beautiful note - and how we treasure you as our most dear and cherished friend.
Our day together was perfect - and we look forward to the promise of many more.

We are delighted to be coming to tea on Tuesday with our Penny and her Steve — We want all of the children to be able to share you, but for each we want it to be a small and intimate time, without any of the others.

I know of no one who sees the beauty and joy in life with the depth that you do — and we feel greatly blessed to be a part of that — and a part of your love.

Come soon again, beloved friend.

Helen, & Steve, too.
