Dear Nell,

I just completed and delivered to my publisher the illustrations for Tallyho Pinkerton, which will be out this fall. I've been working on the book very intensely during the last few months, which is why you haven't heard much from me, — although you have been often in our thoughts! Enclosed is the photograph of Helen and Emily Anna that we promised to send. Melanie was so happy to hear that you liked it, and that you wanted your own copy. When we next see you, (which we hope will be very soon,) we will show you some more recent pictures that Melanie has sent of Emily. (The new Pinkerton book will be dedicated to her!)

A Change of Plans

We hope that you have been enjoying a beautiful spring and that all is well with you. We will be calling soon to plan a time when we can all be together. In the meantime, I thought you might like to see this press sheet fragment for another of my forthcoming books.

We can't wait to see you, and we send you all our love.
