Hong Kong

Dear Grace -

If you can believe it, we made it here at last! I'm still not quite sure I'm here - that peculiar feeling of existing in a hiatus! And Bob is usually off in Saigon or Cambodia working. These islands exist in time, not reality for the purpose of business or transit. So to live here is a little weird. It's a highly mercantile place. Music, painting, theater - even good movies! - are at a premium.

We're managing to keep our sanity, however. Visually, Hong Kong is a delight & so photographically it offers something to me at least. I will begin a long story on a boat woman next month; her relations to the sea, family etc. It's one of those completely uncommercial subjects but I've had enough of commerce for the time being anyway ("says she proudly...)

Needless to say, we miss you & are thinking of you. Can't the Museum establish a branch here? (Please?!) Both of us hope you're well & that you'll send us news of yourself & your activities. A very happy New Year...

Affectionately,

(Signed) Inger & Bob

P. S. Gads - nearly forgot: Am having baby in June!
