Dear Nell:

Many thanks for your sweet letter. We did miss you, but of course I can understand that there's fortunate enough to have you as a grandmother must come before all else. Other things can wait, and the exhibition (which is John's, not mine) will be on view until July 21st.

You are right - empathy is one of the few realities, and although I am unworthy of your friendship, it is among my greatest treasures.

With love,

Grace

Congratulations to Kitten Howe!
