Dear Nell:

You will be glad to hear (if you do not already know it-) that the little piece has been accepted by Singularity. Charlie Reynolds, the editor, said he would confer with you about the photographs you so sweetly agreed to furnish.

Just in case you are planning to come in next week, I must tell you that I'll be involved with a committee on the Museum Collections meeting all Tuesday afternoon, and may have to present the gifts to the Trustees on Thursday afternoon. I would not want to miss the joy of your visit, and the opportunity of saying "thank you" always and forever.

With love and gratitude,
Grace

P.S. Find I am all out of MOMA envelopes - this is being written at home.
