

because he has given much, and that Joanna and all of us who know and love him are the grateful ones of this world. You and I have never been ungrateful of the ungrateful of our privilege!
When are you coming to have lunch with me beside the Sticks in the garden here? I hope you

April 17th, 1965.

Nell dear:

Many thanks for the beautiful Easter thought and for your words about Mr.
Sticker, and Joanna. Your sentiments find an echo in my heart; too, for there is infinite beauty and infinite sadness there. I, too, wept, but we must realize that the Captain has received much have made an entire recovery from the winter's ailments.

my best-love always -

Grace
