

July 31st, 1965

Well dear: many thanks for your beautiful thoughts and for telling me about your fine undertaking. I've sent for tickets, but doubt that I can be with you on what promises to be a gorgeous occasion. The masts here are all too many, and I am engaged in a research problem about the Washington, D.C. sociological and architectural photographer, Frances Benjamin Johnston (1864-1952). Did your path to