Well dear -

It makes me very happy to know that you love family as much as I do! Of course I know Ken and his beautiful family very well, and they are close and dear to me. The pocket-photograph shows Wendy & Jennifer (Ken's adorable wife and first born); p. 21 ditto; p. 125 Ken's father & one of the boys; p. 144 Jennifer in a moment of ecstasy! The little girl is the oldest, then Timothy and Christopher. They are all beautiful and I'll tell you about them some day. Do you want to meet Ken? He is always going around the world on assignments, but we could try.... His show, based on the book (incidentally, a "Book of the Month" Club selection) will open at Hallmark (Fifth 656th,

n. w. cor., downstairs) tomorrow.
Mr. Steichen is one of Ken's fans, too!
When I have a puzzled young photographer on my hands, I always turn him over to Ken, who has the largest heart in the world! Incidentally, I believe you once lived at 1040 Park Avenue, did you not? So did Ken's parents and so did I! Small world.... In haste and with Best love,

Grace

P.S. I'll give your message to Ken - he is very shy, but it will make him happy, I know!
