at that time it will be possible for you to see the film - I'd love to share in experience.
I know how you feel about the museum, but it too has beauty and to me you will always be a part of "all things lovely" and therefore a part of my. children

Well dear:

Many congratulations on all the family happinesses, present and future! It is good to know that you are wallzing to beautiful music!

How lovely of you to have sent The Bare Feet to Sennart Olson! He will be in New York early in June, on his way home, and hopes to return next fall or winter.

you and Chris. How fun the news that- he is to follow the generations and become a photographer for keeps! And also that- he will bring you another granddaughter! Love,
Grace
