Nell dear:

Many thanks for your beautiful card and for your understanding and love. It was wonderful to be with you, and I am always the better for it.

You are sweet to say that I have something to offer to the photographers - I fear that you are the only one who believes this to be so, and for this I am grateful, too.

I hope that you are surviving the incredible heat! Imagine that yesterday I had to journey to New Milford, New York, to attend a performance at "Ontwijck," the home of my dear friends, Claske and Frederick Franck. They are off for 9 months of work in Holland, but upon their return you must see what they have wrought with their hands and hearts - a Chapel called "Pacem in Terris," which is one of the holy places of the earth, and of beauty and spiritual magnificence beyond compare.

I hope that all goes well with you and Chris. My love always -

Grace
