

one's heart - in a way Italy (forever glorious) does not. Possibly, the people are the deciding element, for the nobility of the Iberian puts even a Roman to shame! However, the Palladian villas along the Brenta made up for Milanese rudeness!

So now, one must vote against Nixon and Wallace, though not for Humphrey, and everything seems sordid (vide "Jackie's" marriage - café. Let Sel psychology raised to the 7th Power).

The museum without Peri has lost its most absolute beauty and he

October 20th, 1968.

Well dear:

As you surmised, I came home reluctantly for the first time in my life, to all the ugliness I left behind, in many instances augmented! But it was good to find your message and to know that you love Cartier-Bresson as I do!

Spain was incredibly, unbelievably beautiful! Somehow, it tears at will forever be the director of my heart.

Did you read the tribute by our wonderful Bill Sieberman in a Sunday Times -
If not, I'll send you a copy, for it speaks for all of us, and better than any of us.

Miss Abby is coming to mom one of these days - maybe we three could meet at the Los Club, for I long to see you!

Best love,

Grace

STUDIES FROM NATURE

Drawing in water colors on parchment
by Maria Sibylla Merian. German, 1647-1717

THE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART

Fletcher Fund, 1939

