

January 6, 1971.

Nell dear:

Many thanks for the lovely photographs of you and your beautiful young world, in which you find so much joy and love.

You were very much in my thoughts as I took refuge from the alleged holidays by going to the Mexico which is one of our many points in common.

It was as ever beautiful! I tried a new Hotel - The Camino Real - and there, in one of the lobbies, stood a colossal Calder Stabile, matching the Pyramids in majesty.

Love

Mr. Steichen has reemerged his own wonderful self in our recent talks. He no longer comes to the office, but I go out to Lumpawaug every now and then. When spring comes, you and I must meet, for it has been all too long, and I miss you.

Best love -

Grace

