

Stuttgart, June 29th, 56.

Please give my love
to Tina.
I could you and me
for address? I will write her.

My dear Nell.

I don't know, - but I hope
you are in Villa Serina.
And it is so wonderful to know that Dr. Darr is feeling better. Then I know that you feel better too.
I miss you so much... -
it is as if a part of myself
is not there. -
On the other hand, I ask you questions all the time and
you always answer me.
I even hear your voice!
My Mother is so sweet that it hurts. - She is very happy and so is my Father. We always speak

1.) of you and it is as if you were there. I have never seen Rolf so happy - so overcome by joy - when I greeted him at the Airport. I will never forget it.

He is so lonesome and withdraws so. His health worries me, for he does nothing about it. I have begged him to see a Doctor. But he cares so little about himself. He only asks: "why?" I said - do it for me. All he replied is, that I am going to leave and then there is nobody any more. -

Professor Henninger is now Director of the Academy, I will visit him next week.

3.) You must tell me about the Movie! How is it?

Ernst wanted to know all about it. He was shaken when we met at the Airport. He thinks that I am more myself than ever. He is more himself and clear and true as glass (with corners). Don't you think corners are good, especially if they are strong? I think so. Also I know one thing I never knew:

Ernst can not be hurt, not by me - as long as I tell him the reason for an action - or not acting. - He knows what Rilke means. That lifts a mountain from my shoulders!

Now I shall climb into my little basket.

I love you so. - Ever - ever - ever your Rose.
