been home now for two weeks and feel relaxed and well after a long drive and the happy task of fixing the house. Mitch is back at work with the long job of assimilation for his thesis still ahead; Anne is now going to a nursery school and is delighted with it; I am very healthy and pleased to look forward to our next child in February next - a letter will come soon. Our love - Marguerite.
